Kyocera Selected for Inclusion in Dow Jones Sustainability Asia-Pacific Index for Second Consecutive Year

Kyoto/London, 11. January 2023. KYOCERA Corporation today announced it has qualified as a constituent of the Dow Jones Sustainability Asia-Pacific Index for the second consecutive year. The Dow Jones Sustainability Indices (DJSI) are designed for investors to track sustainability leaders on equity markets using a best-in-class selection process.

Powered by the S&P Global CSA

The DJSI is an index jointly developed by S&P Dow Jones Indices LLC in the United States and Robeco Holding B.V. (“RobecoSAM”) in Switzerland in 1999. The index evaluates companies from the perspective of Environment, Social and Governance (ESG) criteria, and selects leading enterprises for inclusion in the DJSI. The constituents of DJSI are reviewed annually; 156 companies including 74 Japanese companies were selected for DJSI Asia Pacific in 2022 from among 600 companies in the Asia-Pacific region.

Kyocera received high marks in the selection process for its proactive disclosure of corporate social responsibility efforts in a range of areas, including climate change, human rights, diversity & inclusion, and supply chains management through its integrated report and corporate sustainability site.

The Kyocera Group will continue to enhance communications and disclosures with stakeholders in order to increase its value to society as a responsible enterprise.

About Kyocera

Headquartered in Kyoto, Japan, KYOCERA Corporation is one of the world's leading manufacturers of fine ceramic components for the technology industry. The strategically important divisions in the KYOCERA Group, which is comprised of 298 subsidiaries (as of March 31, 2022), are information and communications technologies, products which increase quality of life, and environmentally friendly products. The technology group is also one of the most experienced producers of smart energy systems worldwide, with more than 45 years of know-how in the industry. The company is ranked #603 on Forbes magazine's 2021 "Global 2000" listing of the world's largest publicly traded companies.

With a global workforce of over 83,000 employees, Kyocera posted sales revenue of approximately €13,42 billion in fiscal year 2021/2022. The products marketed by the company in Europe include printers, digital copying systems, semiconductor-, fine ceramic-, automotive- and electronic components as well as printing devices and ceramic kitchen products. The KYOCERA Group has two independent companies in the United Kingdom: KYOCERA Fineceramics Ltd. and KYOCERA Document Solutions Ltd.

The company also takes an active interest in cultural affairs. The Kyoto Prize, a prominent international award, is presented each year by the Inamori Foundation — established by Kyocera founder Dr. Kazuo Inamori — to individuals worldwide who have contributed significantly to the scientific, cultural, and spiritual betterment of humankind (approximately €710,000* per prize category).
